REFLECTION

Before appointing the twelve apostles, Jesus takes time away from everything to pray in solitude. It is a practice we see in Jesus' life on several occasions.
Before embarking on something new or before a major event, he takes time to be alone in prayer.

This has often been a challenging example for me to follow. I like activity and being in motion. When I finish one thing I want to move right on to the next thing. But I have learned, sometimes the hard way, that time alone in prayer is essential.
Taking a moment to re-center myself enables me to refocus on what is important: what God is calling me to do and who God is calling me to be.

ICON OF THE SACRED HEART

The Icon of the Sacred Heart is with us for a short period of time. We thank the Knights of Columbus for sharing with us this special privilege.

St Pat's Food Bank

Our food bank needs tins of mixed vegetables, green & yellow beans and carrots.
